Message from the President

100 new funds

This year has, by far, surpassed our expectations.

As you will see in our financial report, our Foundation has now reached almost $1.2 Billion in assets.

This growth is a testament to the remarkable individuals and families who care so much about our community and who have made tzedakah, giving, a prominent part of their lives. It is also a testament to the trust they have in our Foundation's ability to support their philanthropic goals. This year saw 100 new clients open funds with the JCF. Who among us could have predicted this growth and what it has achieved and will continue to achieve?

I am particularly inspired by what this will mean for our Montreal Jewish Community over the long term. It is a clear sign that our clients are building their philanthropic legacy in ways that will sustain our community's health and vibrancy well into the future. This year alone, our fund holders increased allocations from $34.2 to $40.9 Million, an increase of close to 20%.

I am grateful for the invaluable time, insights and advice from our board and committee members.

I'm also extremely proud of our staff whose expertise and heart have earned our clients' trust.

We are all truly thankful for this trust and we promise to repay it by continuing to bring you, our clients, and our Jewish Community the best possible service as your partner in philanthropy.

Michael Etinson

"This growth is a testament to the remarkable individuals and families who care so much about our community and who have made tzedakah, giving, a prominent part of their lives."

Message from the Executive Director

תקוה – tikvah – hope

As I reflect on the past year, I am amazed at the number of philanthropic funds created by members of our community and the tremendous sense of optimism and hope it has created –and isn't it great to use these words to describe our wonderful Montreal Jewish Community!

The tremendous growth in philanthropic investment at the JCF is a game-changer and a testament to the generosity and forward-thinking actions of our fund holders.

Working with our clients this year has strengthened our conviction that anything is achievable. When the members of our community, famous for their cohesion and kindness, put their heads and hearts together, they can achieve miracles.

Though there is much more work ahead, let's look back and celebrate the generosity of our clients which led to the attainment of a new milestone of almost $1.2 billion in philanthropic assets under management at the JCF.

The number astounds us all, and these new investments will no doubt have a transformative impact on our community. It means that we can confidently point to a time, right around the corner, when more than $60 million a year in tzedakah will be distributed by our fund holders. This will support a wide range of charities that contribute to strengthening our community, and will bolster our leaders' efforts to ensure its sustainability.

I am grateful to Bobby Kleinman, Joelle Mamane and the entire team for their dedication and commitment to excellence. We move towards the next chapter in our history with a sense of optimism and hope – tikvah. Together with our fund holders we are shaping a better future for generations to come.

Daniel and Michael wanted to find a cost-effective way to translate their business success into meaningful philanthropic giving. The transfer of marketable securities was a tax-smart vehicle that helped them make a larger charitable impact at less cost.

Class of 2015 Scholarship recipients

Many fund holders designate their funds to further the education of young people in our community. This year scholarships for post-secondary education were presented to 75 students.

Supporting and strengthening community organizations

"Partnering with the Jewish Community Foundation gives us peace of mind and confidence knowing that our philanthropic funds are managed with expert care. This valued relationship allows us to focus our energies on the core mission and programs of the Montreal Holocaust Memorial Centre while relying on the trusted advice of the JCF in matters of investment and long-term management of our endowments."

Alice Herscovitch, Executive Director Montreal
 Holocaust Memorial Centre

The Foundation supports community organizations in multiple ways:

- By providing grants designated by our fund holders
 - this year more than $40.9 million to 686 organizations.
- By building and managing more than $93M in endowment funds for more than 60 organizations.
- By helping organizations develop their fundraising capacity to ensure financial sustainability, and providing training for fundraising professionals.

Why community organizations choose to work with the JCF:

- Investment management tailored to objectives
- Expert advice on building endowments and improving financial sustainability
- Long-term stewardship
- Reduced administrative burden

When we were thinking about our financial and philanthropic plans, the Foundation offered the expertise to help us provide for the future of our family and the community we love. They also offered something else – peace of mind. At this stage in our lives, it feels good to know we have a trusted advisor who cares about what's important to us.

FULLER LANDAU, an independent public accounting firm, audits the Foundation's financial statements which are available on our website.

"Our growth was driven by individuals who either had or anticipated creating a private foundation and decided to work with us instead. They recognize the many advantages of dealing with the JCF: reduced administrative burden, complete privacy, long-term oversight, flexibility and peace of mind."

Kathy R. Assayag
Executive Director

"This year we have seen major growth and success and that is good; but what is most motivating to us is how it demonstrates the trust that our community and our clients have placed in us. That is what inspires us to give our very best for the future of our community."

Robert Kleinman FCPA, FCA Executive Vice-President

Investment committee report

For the year ended March 31, 2016, the Jewish Community Foundation of Montreal's pooled fund had a return of -3.2 percent. The average annualized return for the last five years has been 5 percent.

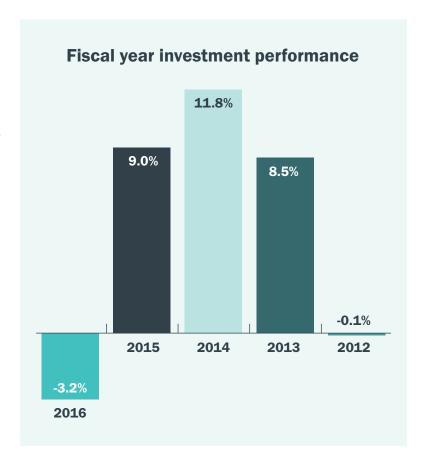

Performance

2016 was a turbulent year with fears of an economic slowdown in China, questions about the viability of the European Union as Greece negotiated another bailout plan, and oil prices that plummeted 19.5 percent over the fiscal year.

Despite strong monetary and fiscal stimulus, equities dropped 4.3 percent globally and 6.6 percent in Canada. The JCF equity portfolio returned -0.2 percent versus the MSCI AC World Index return of -4.3 percent. Most of the outperformance came from JCF's private capital managers who returned 9.5 percent for the fiscal year. Despite volatile equity markets, strategic acquisitions and positive secondary acquisitions helped our private equity portfolio perform well.

Loose monetary policy in much of the world has led to continued low interest rates, and in some instances negative interest rates. With that environment as a backdrop, JCF's Canadian Fixed Income portfolio gained 0.7 percent, in line with the benchmark of 0.8 percent.

Hedge funds, down 0.9 percent, were able to provide shelter from equity market declines and volatility. Sector rotations and investment themes switching from risk on to risk off made it a difficult environment for stock pickers, but market neutral strategies did relatively well. JCF's Diversifying Strategies portfolio outperformed its benchmark, the HFRI FoF Composite index, by over 475 basis points.

Currency and Currency Hedging

The Fund uses a dynamic currency hedging policy approved by the Investment Committee with the aim of reducing the foreign currency risk and removing most of the short-term currency volatility and the resulting impact on spending. However, a portion of the USD investments are not hedged in order to provide another source of diversification to the portfolio.

This past year the Canadian dollar depreciated 2% against the US greenback.

In an environment where the Canadian dollar depreciates, currency hedges cost the portfolio. JCF's currency hedging policy resulted in the portfolio being fifteen percent unhedged over the year, which mitigated the hedging costs a bit. The unhedged return would have been -1.8 percent while the actual portfolio return was -3.2 percent.

Asset Allocation

The JCF has a long-term outlook and its investment policies seek to generate returns that will support the programs funded by our donors. The investment policies and philosophy are set by the Investment Committee – primarily to invest for the long-term, to use a multi-manager approach, to diversify the portfolio by investing in an array of asset classes, and to have an allocation to hedged investment strategies with the goal of smoothing the Fund's return volatility over time. The policy targets as of March 31, 2016 were:

2015 Person of the Year

Arnold Steinberg zl, CM

1933-2015

A champion of his people and all Canadians

"Who is honoured? He who honours mankind." – Talmud

One of the leading lights of our community H. Arnold Steinberg passed away suddenly on December 11, 2015, almost three months after the Foundation honoured him as its 2015 Man of the Year. A clear thinker, decisive, kind and humble who bettered the society in which he lived, Arnold Steinberg embodied the essence of a Jewish leader. Making a positive impact in both the Jewish and non-Jewish world, he believed in the transformative power of education and the cause of quality healthcare.

Happiest when giving back he was a tireless fundraiser and volunteer and the institutions he worked with were made stronger by his leadership. As our president Brenda Gewurz said when she named Arnold Steinberg the JCF Man of the Year, "Today we honour you as a philanthropist, leader, educator and humanitarian. The truth is, we are the ones honoured by honouring you."

May his memory be blessed.

The Talmud says that Tzedakah and acts of kindness are the equivalent of all the mitzvoth of the Torah. We have discovered the pleasure and fulfillment of giving and doing mitzvoth as a family. Thanks to the trusted advice of the Foundation, we will have a positive impact on our community for many generations.
